• If possible, group students from different countries.
• Give a time limit for discussion.
• While students are talking, walk around and provide help as needed.
• To wrap up, select a number of students and ask: What was the most surprising thing you learned in your group's discussion?

Expansion: Speaking Practice for 2C

• Have students prepare short oral reports about New Year customs and celebrations in their cultures.
• On the board, write topics associated with New Year celebrations, for example, date and season, food, clothing, gifts, greetings, home customs, religious customs, and other customs.
• Have students from the same culture work together. Have them divide up the topics so that each student reports on one aspect of the holiday. Pre-level students can report on simpler aspects of the New Year holiday, such as the date and season, food, or gifts. Above-level students should report on the more complex aspects of the holiday, such as home and religious customs.
• Give a time limit for preparation. While students are working, walk around and provide help as needed.
• Bring the class together. Have each group do a report to the class.

Culture Connection

The Thai New Year festival is called songkram. It is usually celebrated for three days, beginning on April 13. Thai people celebrate by eating traditional foods, thoroughly cleaning their homes, and visiting their temples and bringing food to the monks, as well as by participating in a variety of customs involving water—especially throwing water on one another! These same customs are followed by many immigrants living in Thai neighborhoods in the U.S.

3 CONVERSATION

Pronunciation Watch

• On the board, write: tip, cab, hat, sad, book, and leg. Say: I’m going to say each word two ways. Tell me what you notice about the last sound.
• Say each word twice, first pronouncing the final consonant very strongly and the second time pronouncing it naturally with a short, quiet sound.
• Elicit from the class the difference between the first and second pronunciations.
• Read out loud the Pronunciation Watch note.
• To reinforce, say each word again, pronouncing the final consonant naturally with a short, quiet sound.
• Have students repeat each word after you.

Language Note

Final stops /p/, /b/, /t/, /d/, /k/, and /g/ are unreleased at the ends of words. In other words, they are pronounced with no release of air. In the student book this is described as short, quiet pronunciation.

A Listen to the words. Notice...

Lesson 2  Describe feelings about a neighborhood

Getting Started  5 minutes

- Introduce the grammar point with a short anecdote. You could, for example, tell a story about a movie that you loved but a companion disliked. Include in your story sentences such as The special effects were amazing; I thought the movie was really exciting, but my friend was so bored she fell asleep.
- As you are telling the story, write the -ing and -ed words on the board.
- Point to the words on the board and say: In this lesson we’re going to look at adjectives that end in -ing and -ed.

Presentation  15 minutes

Participial adjectives
- Copy the grammar chart onto the board. Read the sentences and underline the participial adjectives.
- Read the first Grammar Watch note. Point to the sentences in the chart with -ing participles and ask: What's the cause of the feeling? (all the restaurants and shops) Then point to the sentences with -ed participles and ask: Which person has the feeling in this sentence? (I)
- Read the second note. Elicit sentences with worried and relieved. Ask students: When do you feel worried? When do you feel relieved? Write students' sentences on the board.
- Read the third note and point to the sentences in the chart with amazed at and bored by. Ask students if they know any other -ed adjectives followed by prepositions. If necessary, cue them by saying interested . . . (in), surprised . . . (by), worried . . . (about).

Expansion: Grammar Presentation
- Have students look at the list of -ed adjectives + prepositions on page 281. Give them a time limit, such as two minutes, to examine the list and memorize as many combinations as possible.
- Divide students into teams. Say an -ed adjective from the list. Have students call out the preposition. Award one point to the first team to call out the correct preposition.

Controlled Practice  20 minutes

A Mark the boldfaced adjectives...
- Read the first sentence. Ask: What is exciting? What is the cause? (life in a new country)

- Check answers. If it is necessary to clarify an answer, ask: What is the cause of the feeling? or Who is experiencing the feeling?
- Write the boldfaced words and the answers, C or F, on the board.

B Complete the conversation between...
- Read the first sentence. Ask: Is there another preposition we can use here? (no)
- Remind students they can consult the list on page 281 if necessary.
- Have students work alone or in pairs. While they are working, walk around and provide help as needed.

Expansion: Speaking Practice for 1B
- Form cross-ability pairs. Have pairs make sentences using the answers on the board from Exercise 1B.
- Call on students to read their sentences to the class. Make corrections as needed.
- To make the activity more challenging, tell students to write a conversation using as many of the items as they can.

• Read item 3. Ask: In the U.S., is it polite to ask someone about his or her age? Is it polite in your culture?
• Ask: What other topics should you not ask about in the U.S.? (how much money people make and how much they paid for things such as their house, etc.)
• Have volunteers share their ideas with the class.

Lesson 6  Read about community involvement

Getting Started  10 minutes

1  BEFORE YOU READ

A  CLASS.  Discuss.  Are there...

- Have students look at the photo. Ask: What kind of garden is this? Where do you think this is? Is there a garden like this near your home?
- On the board, write community garden. Ask: What is a community garden? If students do not know, explain: A community garden is an area owned by the city where residents of a neighborhood are allowed to plant their own garden.
- Have volunteers share their answers with the class.

Expansion: Speaking Practice for 1A

- With the class, discuss the advantages and disadvantages of having your own garden. Write students’ ideas on the board in a two-column chart.

B  Read the title and the headings...

- On the board, write go green. Say: Many cities, businesses, schools, and families are going green these days. What do you think that means? (taking steps to control pollution, planting more trees and flowers in public areas, using less energy, and recycling)
- Have students look at the title and headings. Call on students to share their predictions about the main idea. Write their ideas on the board.

Answer: The main idea of the article is that neighborhoods are going green by planting community gardens.

Presentation  15 minutes

2  READ

Listen and read the article. Was your prediction...

- Note: Do not pre-teach the boldfaced vocabulary. The items are practiced in Exercise 4.
- Play CD 1, Track 34. Ask students to listen and read along with the article.
- When students have finished reading, point to the main-idea predictions on the board and ask: Were your predictions correct? Have a volunteer restate the main idea.
- Call on volunteers to state the author’s opinion about community gardens. Since the article does not say what the author’s opinion is, students must infer that it is positive. Ask: How do you know? Have students find words and phrases in the text that give a positive impression, for example: a place of beauty, fresh food, and a source of pride.

Answer: The author thinks that community gardens bring many benefits to the neighborhoods that have them.
- As a follow-up, have students listen as they read the article again.

3 CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

A Complete the sentences. Circle...
- Have students work alone to complete the exercise.
- Have students compare answers with a partner.
- Call on students to read the questions and answers. Write the answers on the board.

Reading Skill: Making Inferences
- Read the Reading Skill. Explain that an inference is the same as a logical guess.
- Explain that in order to make logical guesses, readers must use their knowledge and look for clues in the text. This kind of reading is often called reading between the lines.
- Point out that students practiced making an inference when they answered the question about the author’s opinion in Exercise 2.

B Read the Reading Skill. Then answer...
- Have students read the article again. Tell them to underline information (any clue) that helps them answer the question.
- Take a vote. Ask: How many people think crime probably increased? decreased? stayed the same? How do you know?
Answer: Crime probably decreased. The article says, “Research at Texas A&M . . . shows that city areas with more green have less crime.” We know that the green areas in Norris Square increased, so the crime should have decreased.
- Go through the text and have students say which information they underlined.

4 WORD WORK

Find these boldfaced words in the article. Circle...
- Explain that both of the definitions given for each word are in the dictionary, but only one is correct in the context of the article. Students need to read the sentence—and sometimes the whole paragraph—in which a word appears before they choose their answer.

- Read the list of words and have students repeat. Point out that all the words are verbs.
- Repeat item 1 and read definition d.
- Form cross-ability pairs and have them complete the exercise.

• Ask volunteers to perform their conversations.

B Communication Practice 15 minutes

PAIRS. Do you think Eva will...

• Read the last two lines of the conversation in Exercise 3B with an above-level student.

• Give students a time limit for discussion.

Lesson 8  Identify community problems

Getting Started  5 minutes

• Write on the board: I want to find a job. Ask the class: What is the verb? (want) What is the infinitive? (to find)

• Using a different color, insert my brother between want and to in the sentence above. Ask the class: What's the difference between the sentences? (The second sentence has an object. It changes the meaning. In the first sentence, the speaker wants to find a job. In the second sentence, the speaker wants a different person—his or her brother—to find a job.)

• Say: In this lesson, we're going to practice sentences that have the structure verb + object + infinitive.

Presentation  10 minutes

Verb + object + infinitive

• Copy the grammar chart onto the board. Read the sentences. Circle the verbs, draw a line under the objects, and draw two lines under the infinitives.

• Explain urge. Say: To urge means to suggest something very strongly. For example, if you have a high fever, I urge you to see a doctor.

• Read the first Grammar Watch note. Point to the infinitives in the examples.

• Read the second note. Point to us in the second example. Point to the city in the first example and explain that the object can also be a noun.

Language Note

Other verbs that can be followed by an object and an infinitive include ask, advise, tell, teach, remind, encourage, expect, and warn.

Expansion: Grammar Practice

• Write several scrambled sentences on the board, for example: expects / on time / The teacher / us / our homework / to complete, and Parents / the truth / their children / encourage / always / to tell, and to speak / I / the teacher / more slowly / asked.

• Pair students and have them unscramble the sentences. Have them raise their hands when they are ready.

• Call on different students to say the unscrambled sentences.

Controlled Practice  25 minutes

A  Read the conversation from a...

• Read the first two sentences and copy the example on the board.

• Have students complete the exercise alone or in pairs. Walk around and provide help as needed.

• Ask the class: How many verbs did you circle? What's the first one? Elicit each verb + object + infinitive. Circle and underline the appropriate words.

Expansion: Speaking Practice for 1A

• Pair students and have them read the conversation.

• Remind students to use the relaxed pronunciation of to.

• Call on pairs to perform the conversation for the class.

B  Cross out the noun object in each...

• Read item 1. Ask: *Why is them correct?* (It replaces the sanitation workers—third person plural)

• Have students complete the exercise alone or in pairs. Walk around and provide help as needed.

• Write the numbers 2 through 6 on the board. Have students come up and write the crossed-out noun and the pronoun that replaces it, as in the example.

• Call on students to read the sentences with the pronouns out loud.

Expansion: Grammar Practice for 1B

• Have students circle the verbs in Exercise 1B.

• Tell them to make a list of verbs that can be followed by verb + object + infinitive, beginning with the verbs they circled in Exercises 1A and 1B.

• Ask the class if they know other verbs that belong on the list. Elicit an example sentence with each correct verb. Have students add each verb to their list.

UNIT 3  T-60
Lesson 8
Identify community problems

Communicative Practice 20 minutes

Show what you know!

STEP 1. GROUPS. Identify a problem in...

- With the class, identify problems in the neighborhood where your school is located. Write the problems on the board.
- Group students and tell them to choose one of the problems on the board for their discussion. Have them choose a timekeeper, a note taker, and a reporter. The note taker should record the group's ideas.
- Give a time limit. While students are talking, walk around and provide help as needed.

STEP 2. CLASS. Share your ideas.

- Make a large three-column chart on the board with the headings: Problem, Who Can Help, What To Say.
- Have reporters share their group's ideas with the class. First they should report on the problem their group discussed. Then they should say whom they would talk to and what they would say.
- Write a summary of all the reports in the chart on the board.

Expansion: Writing Practice for STEP 2

- Have students write a letter to the person whom they'd talk to, using the ideas summarized in the chart on the board.

Progress Check

Can you . . . identify community problems?

Say: We have practiced identifying community problems. Now, look at the question at the bottom of the page. Can you identify community problems? Write a checkmark in the box.
Express feelings about your neighborhood

Getting Started
5 minutes

1 BEFORE YOU WRITE

GROUPS. Communities can create...

- Write teacher, manager, gardener, and outsider on the board. Ask the whole class: What does -er at the end of a word mean? (a person) What is an outsider? (a person who does not belong to a particular group)
- Form cross-ability groups. Give a time limit. While students are talking, walk around and provide help as needed.
- Bring the class together. Call on volunteers to answer the questions.

Possible answers: 1. It’s important NOT to feel like an outsider because that's an unpleasant feeling. People need to get services and feel supported in their community. 2. People can introduce themselves to their neighbors, become involved in community projects, and go to community events.

Presentation
15 minutes

B Read the writing model. What is...

- Read the model out loud as students read along silently.
- Tell students to read the paragraph again and underline the information that answers the questions.
- Have a volunteer answer the first question. Answer: A block party is a party for all the people who live on a block or in a neighborhood. The city closes a street and all the neighbors come out. There are games, music, and food.
- Have another volunteer answer the second question. Since this is an inference question, ask the student: How do you know? Answer: The author has a very positive opinion. She says she had fun, she learned a lot about her neighborhood, and she made some good friends at the party.

PAIRS. Answer the questions.

- Read the first question and ask the class: How many reasons does the writer give? (three) Which words help you identify them? (first, second, last)
- Pair students and give a time limit for talking. Walk around and provide help as needed.
- Call on students to read the questions and say their answers.

Answers: 1. There were games, music, and food, and the writer got to talk to her neighbors. 2. She learned a lot about the neighborhood and made good friends. Now she feels like part of the community, and she has started volunteering in the neighborhood.

What is the second reason...

- Have students work alone. Give a time limit.

Answers: A line should be drawn under “I learned a lot about my neighborhood.” The three examples are: 1. “I found out about the best places to shop and eat.” 2. “I heard about programs and services at the library and the community center.” 3. “I also found out about neighborhood volunteer projects, like cleaning up the park and delivering hot meals to senior citizens.”

GROUPS. Compare your answers.

- Have students compare the sentence they underlined in Exercise D and the sentences they numbered.
- Bring the class together and check answers.

Writing Tip: Using Details

- Read the Writing Tip. Ask: Why are details important? (They illustrate the main ideas. They make writing more interesting and easier to remember.)
- Have students underline the first reason in the model paragraph. Ask: How many details support this reason? (five) What are they? (everyone came out; there were games for children; there was music for teens and adults; there was food for everyone; and the writer got a chance to talk to her neighbors) Can you write two details in the same sentence? (yes) How can you connect them? (with and or commas) Which words connect the different details? (and, best of all)
Lesson 9
Express feelings about your neighborhood

Controlled Practice 20 minutes

2 THINKING ON PAPER

A BRAINSTORM. Think about the neighborhood...
• Remind students that when they brainstorm, they should try to think of a lot of ideas. Later they will choose the ones they want to write about.
• As an example, ask the class to name things they like about their neighborhood and things they dislike. Write the items on the board.
• Give a time limit. While students are writing, walk around and provide help as needed.
• Pair students and have them share their charts with each other.
• Have students share their likes and dislikes with the class. Make two lists on the board.

B Decide whether you...
• Demonstrate the activity. Select one of the likes or dislikes on the board. Have students think of one reason and two (or more) details to support the reason. Write students’ ideas in the form of an outline.
• Have students complete the exercise alone. Give a time limit. While students are working, walk around and provide help as needed.
• Pair or group students and have them share their outlines with one another.

MULTILEVEL INSTRUCTION for 2B

Pre-level Have students give just one reason and provide two details to support their point of view.

Above-level Have students give more than two details to support the reasons for their point of view. Alternately, have them write about one thing they like and one thing they dislike, supporting each with reasons and details. Tell them to separate the two parts of their paragraph with the transition On the other hand.

Communicative Practice 20 minutes

3 WRITE

Write a paragraph about what you like...
• Say: Now use the outline you wrote in Exercise 2B to write your paragraph. It’s OK to change or add ideas while you are writing.
• Review paragraph format. Remind students to give their paragraph a title, indent the first line, and begin each sentence with a capital letter.
• Encourage students to use the unit grammar: participial adjectives, wish in the present and future, and verb + object + infinitive phrases.

4 CHECK YOUR WRITING

Teaching Tip
You may want to collect student papers and provide feedback. Use the scoring rubric for writing on page T-xiv to evaluate each student’s vocabulary, grammar, mechanics and how well he or she has completed the task. You may want to review the completed rubric with the students.

• Read the questions in the checklist. Say: These questions will help you write a better paragraph.
• Have students read their paragraphs and check off the questions in the checklist. Alternately, have them revise their paragraphs according to the items in the checklist.
• Collect papers. Make corrections as needed in paragraph format, participial adjectives, wish in the present or future, verb + object + infinitive phrases, and the items in the writing checklist.

Expansion: Writing Practice
• Have students rewrite their paragraphs.
• Pair students and have them read their paragraphs to each other.
• Have volunteers read their paragraphs to the class.

1 REVIEW

Turn to page 247 for the Grammar Review.

2 ACT IT OUT

STEP 1. CLASS. Review the conversation...
- Play CD 1, Track 37. Have students listen as they read the script on page 59.

STEP 2. ROLE PLAY. PAIRS. Role-play this situation.

- Have volunteers role-play for the class.

3 READ AND REACT

STEP 1. GROUPS. Read about Lydia's problem.
- Read the paragraph while students follow along silently.

STEP 2. GROUPS. What is Lydia's problem?...
- Form groups of three or four. Have each group choose a timekeeper, a note taker, and a reporter.
- Give a time limit for discussion.
- Walk around and provide help as needed.
- Have the reporter from each group share the group's ideas. Write all the ideas on the board.
- Have the class vote on the best solution.

Expansion: Speaking Practice for STEP 2
- Ask students if they have had a similar experience and how they dealt (or are dealing) with it.
- If students don't have a similar experience, have students share their opinions about whether this would be a problem for them. If so, how would they deal with it?

4 CONNECT

Turn to page 258 for the Community-Building Activity and page 265 for the Team Project. See page T-xi for general notes about teaching these activities.

Which goals can you check off? Go back to page 45. Ask students to turn to page 45 and check off any remaining goals they have reached. Call on students to say which goals they will practice outside of class.

Go to the CD-ROM for more practice.

If your students need more practice with the vocabulary, grammar, and competencies in Unit 3, encourage them to review the activities on the CD-ROM.

MULTILEVEL INSTRUCTION FOR 2
Pre-level Have students write their dialogue. Tell Student A to give just one reason why the cleanup is a good idea. Tell Student B to give one reason why he or she cannot participate.

Above-level Have students practice without notes. Tell Student A to give three reasons why the cleanup is important or why Student B will benefit from participating. Have Student B give three reasons why he or she cannot participate.
