Unit Goals

- Identify clothes and shoes
- Ask about clothing size
- Use This/That These/Those
- Identify colors
- Say what someone is wearing
- Return clothes and say the problem
- Read a store ad
- Write about the colors people wear at funerals and weddings

Getting Started

Books closed.

- Elicit vocabulary students may already know. Show Transparency 8.1. Ask: What clothes do you like to wear to school? What clothes do you wear to work? Give students the opportunity to answer without correcting their English.
- Repeat students’ answers for the class to repeat. Write the words on the board.
- State the lesson objective: We’re learning the words for clothes and shoes.

Presentation

20 minutes

A Look at the clothes and shoes...

- Show Transparency 8.1 again or hold up your book. Point to the group of pictures and say: Clothes and shoes.
- Play CD 4, Track 24. Point to each item. Students listen.
- Continue playing Track 24. Point to each item and have students repeat.

Books open.

- Play Track 24 again. Students listen and point to the items in their books.
- Continue playing Track 24. Students point as they listen and repeat.

Expansion: Vocabulary Practice for A

- Form pairs. Use the Vocabulary Cards for page 130. Student A points to an item. Student B says the word. Then students switch roles.

B Listen and read...

- Play CD 4, Track 25. Students listen and read.
- Continue playing Track 25. Ask students to listen and repeat as they read.

Expansion: Writing Practice for B

- Write on the board: singular plural. Form pairs. Ask students to put the words from the word box into the two groups.
- Review the answers by writing them on the board so students can check their work.
Lesson 1  Clothes and shoes

Presentation 10 minutes

C  Listen. Listen and repeat.
- Show Transparency 8.2 or have students look at their books. Cover the dialog or have students cover the dialog in their books.
- Elicit information about the picture. Tell students to hold up their YES or NO cards to answer. Ask: What do you think? Is the store having a sale? Are the women going shopping?
- Play CD 4, Track 26. Students listen. Pause the CD. Ask the comprehension questions again.
- Continue playing Track 26. Ask students to listen and repeat.
- Now show the dialog on Transparency 8.2 or have students read in their books. Play Track 26 again. Students listen and read silently.
- Continue playing Track 26. Students listen and repeat.

Controlled Practice 5 minutes

D  PAIRS. Practice the conversation.
- Model the conversation in Exercise C. Say the lines for Speaker A. Have the class say the lines of Speaker B chorally.
- Pairs practice the conversation two times. Have each student role-play Speakers A and B.
- Ask volunteers to perform for the class.

Presentation 5 minutes

F  Listen and read the story.
- Play CD 4, Track 27. Students listen and read the story silently.
- Play Track 27 again. Students listen and underline words they do not know.
- Write the words on the board. Ask students to guess the meaning from the context of the story. Help students with any word they can’t guess by drawing a picture on the board or by using the word in another context.

Controlled Practice 5 minutes

F  Read the story again...
- Ask students to read the questions first and then read the story again.
- Write item 1 on the board. Have students point to the answer in the story. Model circling Yes.
- Call on volunteers to read each sentence. Tell students to hold up their YES or NO cards to answer.

Communicative Practice 10 minutes

GROUPS. Play a game...
- Say the sentences in the speech bubbles for the class to repeat.
- To demonstrate this memory game, have two students model it with you. You should be second in line. Have each person say his or her name.
- Have a student start: I need _______. Then you say: [Name] needs _______. I need _______. Help the third student say: [Name] needs _______. [Name] needs _______. I need _______.
- Circulate and assess students’ ability to say the words for clothes and shoes. If the class needs more practice, review pages 130 and 131.

Critical Thinking Skill: Planning
- Set the context. Say: You are going on a job interview. What are you wearing to the interview? What clothes do you have? What clothes do you need?
- Have each student write the clothes and shoes they are wearing to the interview. Students can look at page 130.
- Form cross-ability pairs. Have students share their lists.
- To finish, ask volunteers to tell the class what they are planning to wear for the interview.

Lesson 2

Clothing size • This/That These/Those

Getting Started 5 minutes

Books closed.

• Elicit vocabulary students may already know. Set the context. Draw a T-shirt on the board. Say: I want to buy a T-shirt. What do you think? What sizes can I find?
• Repeat students’ answers for the class to repeat chorally. Write the words on the board.
• State the lesson objective: We’re learning to ask about clothing sizes.

Presentation 10 minutes

Books open.

A Listen and point...

• Draw four sizes of shirts on the board or have students look in their books. Point to the pictures and say each word. Say: These are describing words.
• Play CD 4, Track 28. Students listen and point.
• Continue playing Track 28. Students listen and repeat.

B Listen. Listen and repeat.

• Show Transparency 8.3 or have students look in their books. Cover the dialog or have students cover the dialog in their books.
• Play CD 4, Track 29. Students listen. Pause the CD. Check comprehension. Tell students to hold up their YES or NO cards to answer. Ask: Are the people in a classroom? Is the man asking for a size large shirt? Does the store have the pants in size 12?
• Continue playing Track 29. Students listen and repeat.
• Now show the dialog on Transparency 8.3 or have students read in their books. Play Track 29 again. Students listen and read silently.
• Continue playing Track 29. Students listen and repeat.

Controlled Practice 15 minutes

C PAIRS. Practice the conversation.

• Model the conversation in Exercise B. Say the lines for Speaker A. Have the class say the lines of Speaker B chorally.
• Pairs practice the conversation two times. Have each student role-play Speakers A and B.
• Ask volunteers to role-play the conversation for the class.

• Have the class look at the pictures for Conversation 1. Say: What clothes and shoes do you see? Describe them. Write students’ responses on the board.
• Model a new conversation. The class says the lines for Speaker B. You say the lines for Speaker A.
• Instruct pairs to say each new conversation two times so students role-play Speakers A and B.
• Walk around and help pairs say the new conversations. Then ask volunteers to role-play one of their new conversations.

Expansion: Writing Practice for D

• Students write one of their new conversations.
Lesson 2  Clothing size • This/That  These/Those

Presentation  15 minutes

Read the sentences.

- Use Transparency 8.3 or have students look at the chart in their books. Cover the dialog on the transparency.
- Say each sentence in the chart and have students read silently. Say each sentence again and have students repeat chorally.
- Point to the first question. Circle this. Explain: We use this when something is close to us. Use your hand or an object to demonstrate close. Say the question and answer and have the class repeat.
- Point to the answer. Circle that. Explain: We use that when one thing/something is far from us. Use your hand or an object to demonstrate far. Say the question and answer and have the class repeat.
- Point to the second question. Circle these. Explain: We use these when there are two or more things close to us. Use your hand or an object to demonstrate close. Say the second question and answer and have the class repeat.
- Point to the answer. Circle those. Explain: We use those when there are two or more things far from us. Use your hand or an object away from you to demonstrate far. Say the second question and answer and have the class repeat.

Communicative Practice  5 minutes

Show what you know!

PAIRS. Practice the conversations...

- Model the first conversation. You ask the question. The class says the answer chorally.
- Tell pairs to practice each conversation two times so they can say both sentences. Students can also make up new conversations.
- Circulate and assess students’ ability to use This/That and These/Those. If the class needs more practice, review pages 132 and 133.

Critical Thinking Skill: Organizing

- Set the context. Say: You’re going shopping for new clothes and shoes. Make a list of five things you want to buy.
- Write on the board: Clothes  Size. Have students tell you the sizes used in the United States and write them on the board, for example, small, medium, large, extra large, 10, 12, 14, shoe sizes, etc. Tell students to write the size they need next to each item on their list.
- Form cross-ability pairs. Students take turns saying their lists.

Controlled Practice  10 minutes

Write this or these.

- Write item 1 on the board and do it with the class. Ask: Do we need this or these? (this) Why? (It’s about a/one jacket. We need singular.)
- Have students compare answers with a classmate.
- To review the exercise, ask volunteers to write the sentences on the board. Make any necessary corrections.

Write that or those.

- Write item 1 on the board and do it with the class. Ask: Do we need that or those? (those) Why? (It’s about socks. More than one means we need plural.)
- Have students compare answers with a classmate.
- To review the exercise, ask volunteers to write the sentences on the board. Make any necessary corrections.

Lesson 4
Return clothes and say the problem

Getting Started 5 minutes

Books closed.

- Set the context and elicit vocabulary students may already know. Say: Your brother buys you a jacket for your birthday. But there is a problem with the jacket. What do you think the problem is? Is it too big, too small, the wrong color?
- Repeat students’ answers for the class to repeat. Write the words on the board.
- State the lesson objective: We’re learning to return clothes to the store and say the problem.

Presentation 15 minutes

A Listen and point...

- Show Transparency 8.6 or hold up your book. Point to the pictures and say: Problems with clothes.
- Play CD 4, Track 33. Point to each problem. Students listen.
- Continue playing Track 33. Point to each problem and have students repeat.

B Books open.

- Play Track 33 again. Students listen and point to the problems in their books.
- Continue playing Track 33. Students point as they listen and repeat.

Expansion: Vocabulary Practice for A

- Form pairs. Student A points to a problem. Student B says the words. Then students switch roles.

Controlled Practice 15 minutes

B Listen for the problem...

- Write item 1 on the board. Play CD 4, Track 34. Pause the CD. Students listen and read. Model circling b.
- Continue playing Track 34. Tell students to circle the correct answers.
- Have students compare answers with a partner. Then play Track 34 again so students can check answers one more time.
- To review this exercise, write the answers on the board. You may want to play the audio two or three times for students to confirm the correct answers.

C Listen and repeat.

- Show Transparency 8.6 or have students look at their books. Cover the dialog or have students cover the dialog in their books.
- Elicit information about the picture. Tell students to hold up their YES or NO cards to answer. Ask: What do you think? Are the people in a market? Is the man returning the suit? Are the shoes too big?
- Play CD 4, Track 35. Students listen. Pause the CD. Ask the comprehension questions again.
- Continue playing Track 35. Ask students to listen and repeat.
- Now show the dialog on Transparency 8.6 or have students read in their books. Play Track 35 again. Students listen and read silently.
- Continue playing Track 35. Students listen and repeat.

D Listen again...

- Play CD 4, Track 36. Have students listen and circle the answers. Play Track 36 again. Have students check their answers.
- To correct this exercise, ask a volunteer to read the sentences. Tell students to hold up their YES or NO cards to answer.

E PAIRS. Practice the conversation.

- Model the conversation in Exercise C. Say the lines for Speaker A. Have the class say the lines of Speaker B chorally.
- Pairs practice the conversation two times. Have each student role-play Speakers A and B.
- Ask volunteers to role-play the conversation for the class.
Lesson 4
Return clothes and say the problem

PAIRS. Look at the pictures...

- Talk about the picture for Conversation 1 with the class. Ask: What are the problems? Write students’ answers on the board.
- Make a new conversation for picture 1 with the class. You are Student A. The class is Student B. Then have pairs practice the new conversation.
- Have pairs work on Conversation 2. Walk around and help as necessary.
- Ask volunteers to role-play their new conversations for both pictures in front of the class.

Critical Thinking Skill: Critiquing

- Set the context: Say: Many people like to give clothes as gifts. Do you ever give clothes as gifts? Do you receive clothes as gifts? What do you do if there is a problem?
- Form cross-ability groups. Have groups talk about the reasons.
- To complete the activity, have groups say what they decided and why. You may want to write some of the reasons on the board and review the vocabulary.

Lesson 5  Life Skills • Read a store ad

Getting Started  5 minutes

Books closed.
• Elicit vocabulary students may already know. Hold up a department store ad or your book and point to the ad. Ask: What is this? Do you read store ads? Why?
• Repeat students’ answers for the class to repeat. Write the words on the board.
• State the lesson objective: We’re learning to read store ads.

Presentation  10 minutes

Books open.
A Read the store ad.
• Hold up your book. Point to the clothes. Ask: What clothes do you see?
• Tell students to read the ad and underline words they don’t know.
• Ask students for their words. To explain the words, give an example or draw on the board to help students understand. Say the words and have the class repeat.

Controlled Practice  15 minutes

B Read the ad again...
• Do item 1 with the class. Ask: When is the sale? Have students point to the ad to show the answer.
• Have students compare answers with a partner.
• To review this exercise, ask students to read the questions and answers.

Expansion: Speaking Practice for B
• Form cross-ability pairs. Have students write three more questions about the ad.
• Students take turns asking and answering the new questions. Encourage students to point to the ad to show the answers.
• Have volunteers ask the class their new questions. Tell students to point to the ad to show the answers.
Lesson 5  Life Skills • Read a store ad

Presentation  10 minutes

- Listen and read the ad...
  - Tell students they are going to listen and read the ad silently. Point out the blanks and ask them to listen for this information as well. Play CD 4, Track 37. Students should not be writing yet.
  - Tell students they are going to listen again and write the missing information. Play Track 37 again. Students write. Play the audio two or three times.
  - Have students compare answers with a partner.
  - To review this exercise, ask students to say the answer for each picture. You may want to play the audio again so students can review the correct answers.

Controlled Practice  15 minutes

- Read the ad again...
  - Review item 1 with the class. Ask students to point to the answer in the ad.
  - Have students compare answers.
  - To review this exercise, have students read the questions and have the class hold up their YES or NO cards to answer.

MULTILEVEL INSTRUCTION for D

- Pre-level Students read the sentences and circle Yes or No.
- Above-level Students write the correct information for all the No answers. Use item 1 as an example: The sale starts on February 16.

Getting Started

Books closed.
- Elicit students’ ideas. Show Transparency 8.7 or hold up your book. Point to picture 2. Say: This woman is getting married. She is called a bride. She is wearing a wedding dress.
- Ask: Who is married? Who has a friend who is married? What did the bride wear on her wedding day? Describe her dress.
- Write students’ answers on the board. You may want to write the name of the students’ country next to their answers.
- State the lesson objective: We’re listening to Yun, a young woman. She’s talking about what she should wear for her wedding.

Presentation

CLASS. Look at each picture...
- Show Transparency 8.7 or hold up your book. Point to each picture and ask: What do you see?
- Elicit information without correcting students’ answers. If students have difficulty expressing an idea, try to say it for them.
- Write words or phrases on the board about the pictures.

Books open.

Listen to the story.
- Play CD 4, Track 38. Point to each picture on Transparency 8.7 or have students look at their books. Students listen.
- Check comprehension. Show Transparency 8.7 or hold up your book. Ask:
  1. What is her name? Is she young or old?
  2. When is her wedding? What does she want to wear?
  3. In Yun’s country, what color are funeral clothes?
  4. In Yun’s country, what colors are wedding clothes?
  5. What do Yun’s mother and grandmother say?
  6. Does Yun know what to do?
- Play Track 38 again. Ask students to listen and look at the pictures in their books.
- Check comprehension. Ask the questions above again. Say the answers and have the class repeat.
Lesson 6  Yun’s story

Presentation  10 minutes

C  Listen again and read.
   • Play CD 4, Track 39. Have students listen and read the story in their books.
   • Ask students to identify any words they don’t understand. Write the words on the board and encourage students to guess the meaning.

Expansion: Reading Practice for C
   • Form cross-ability pairs. Students take turns reading the story out loud.

Controlled Practice  20 minutes

D  Read the story again...
   • Write item 1 on the board and demonstrate circling No as the answer.
   • To review answers, ask volunteers to read a sentence and say the answer.

E  GROUPS. Read the questions...
   • Model the discussion. Ask various students some questions about what people wear at sad events and what people wear at happy events: What color do people wear at funerals? What are the colors that people wear during sad times? What color dress does a woman wear at her wedding? What are the colors that people wear for good luck and happy times?
   • Write on the board the roles for the group:
     Student 1: Read each question out loud.
     Student 2: Make sure each student talks.
     Student 3: Tell the class the group’s answers.
   • Walk around and encourage each student to participate in the discussion. To finish the activity, ask each group to share its information.

F  Write about clothes for funerals and weddings.
   • Use information about the United States or about your family and model writing the sentences.
   • Walk around the room and help as necessary.

MULTILEVEL INSTRUCTION for F
Pre-level  Students copy Yun’s story in Exercise C on a piece of paper.
Above-level  Students write their own stories about clothes for weddings or funerals on a piece of paper. Exercise C is the model.

Communicative Practice  10 minutes

G  GROUPS. Take turns. Read...
   • Form cross-ability groups. Encourage above-level students to help as they share their information.

Critical Thinking Skill: Problem Solving
   • Set the context. Say: You are going to act out Yun’s problem. Student A is Yun. Student B is Yun’s mother. Student C is Yun’s grandmother. Student D is Yun’s new husband. Students may feel uncomfortable with playing a female part if they are male or playing a male part if they are female. Change groups or assigned parts as necessary.
   • Form cross-ability groups of 4. Students act out the problem, and then take turns offering ideas on how Yun can solve her problem.
   • To finish, ask each group to share their ideas. Were they able to solve the problem? Write their solutions on the board.

1 THE SOUNDS OF S AND SH

Language Note
The sounds of s and sh are voiceless sounds. The throat does not vibrate for these sounds. To make the s sound, put your front teeth together. Push air out over your tongue. Practice the sound with the word suit. To make the sh sound, put your front teeth together. Your lips form a circle as you push air out. Practice the sound with the word shoes. Say suit and shoes to feel the difference in how the two sounds are produced.

A Read the words out loud...
- Have students work individually. Students point to each word and say it out loud softly two or three times.
- If you demonstrated the information in the Language Note, encourage students to pay attention to the placement of their tongue and lips. Walk around and provide help as needed.

B Listen and repeat.
- Play CD 4, Track 40. Students listen and repeat to self-correct.
- Walk around and check students’ pronunciation of s.
- Play the audio two or three times.

C Read the words out loud...
- Have students work individually. Students point to each word and say it out loud softly two or three times.
- If you demonstrated the information in the Language Note, encourage students to pay attention to the placement of their tongue and lips. Walk around and provide help as needed.

D Listen and repeat.
- Play CD 4, Track 41. Students listen and repeat to self-correct.
- Walk around and check students’ pronunciation of sh.
- Play the audio two or three times.

E Listen. Write s or sh...
- Explain that students will complete each word with s or sh.
- Do the first item with the class. Write on the board: 1. ___ize. Say the word. Have a volunteer come up and write the correct letter.
- Play CD 4, Track 42. You may want to play the audio two times.
- Have students check their answers with a partner.

F DICTATION. PAIRS. Student A...
- Form cross-ability pairs.
- Model the activity with a higher-level student. Ask the student to say a word from Exercise A. Write it on the board. Ask the class to check your spelling.
- Encourage students to check spelling after each word.

G DICTATION. SAME PAIRS. Student B...
- Tell the class to switch roles. Student B says the words from Exercise C. Student A writes the words.
- If necessary, model the activity again with a word from Exercise C.

MULTILEVEL INSTRUCTION for F and G
- Pre-level Students copy the words in Exercises A and C on a piece of paper. Have a classmate check the spelling.
- Above-level Students write five more words with s and sh. They can use any words they know. Form pairs. Have students share their words.

A Listen. Listen and repeat.
- Play CD 4, Track 43. Have students listen and read.
- Continue playing Track 43. Have students listen and repeat chorally.
- Check comprehension. Say each word in the word box. Have students give a definition or draw a picture on the board, or show Transparencies 8.1 and 8.4 and have students come up and point to the items.

B PAIRS. Look at the picture...
- Write on the board: I'm wearing ______. Have a volunteer come up to the board. Ask: What are you wearing? Point to the board to help the student answer. Make sure the word order in the answer is adjective + noun.
- Ask two or three more volunteers to come up to the front to say what they are wearing. Write answers on the board.
- Point out that items 1 and 4 are examples.
- Form cross-ability pairs. Tell students to work together to complete the exercise.
- To review this exercise, have students write their answers on the board. Make any necessary corrections.

3 SPEAKING

A sales assistant asks...
- Have students read the situation and answer choices in their books.
- Say: Circle the answer that completes the dialog.
- Have students compare answers with a classmate.
- Ask a volunteer to write the correct answer on the board.

Extra Practice

If your students need more practice with the vocabulary, grammar, and competencies in Unit 8, encourage them to review the activities on the CD-ROM. This review can also help students prepare for the final role play on the following Expand page.
A  Listen. A sales assistant...

- Set the context. Say: A sales assistant is helping a customer in a store. What does the customer want?
- Play CD 4, Track 44. Have students listen. Write answers on the board.
- Play Track 44 again. Check the answers.

B  ROLE PLAY. PAIRS.

- Prepare students for the activity by pointing to the picture and asking: What do you see? Add any information not mentioned by the students.
- Write on the board: Do you have a ______? Do you have sizes ______?
- Form cross-ability pairs. Model a role play with an above-level student.
- Walk around and help as necessary. Encourage students to play both Students A and B.
- Have volunteers role-play one of their conversations for the class.

Teaching Tip
To prepare students for the activity, review words for colors, sizes, and clothes. Point to items in the room and ask: What color is this? What color is that? Indicate various students and ask: What is he wearing? What is she wearing? Students can also look at the vocabulary on pages 130, 132, and 134.
2 ASK A SALES ASSISTANT FOR HELP

Teaching Tip
To prepare students for the activity, review words for colors, sizes, clothes, and this/that/these/those. Point to colors in the room and ask: What color is this/that? Indicate various students and ask: What is he/she wearing? Students can also look at the vocabulary on pages 130, 132, 133, and 134.

A Listen. A customer and a sales assistant...
- Set the context. Say: A customer is asking for help. What does the customer want?
- Play CD 4, Track 45. Have students listen. Write answers on the board.
- Play Track 45 again. Check the answers.

Community Building
Try to mix up the pairs and have different students work with each other. This way students have a chance to talk with everyone in the class.

B PAIRS. Look at the pictures...
- Prepare students for the activity by asking: What do you see in the pictures? If necessary, review this/that/these/those.
- Form cross-ability pairs. Model asking about sizes and colors of clothes with an above-level student.
- Create a possible conversation together with the class. Write it on the board.
- Walk around and help as necessary. Students may want to first write their dialog on a separate piece of paper, check their work, and then write it in their books.

C CLASS. Take turns. Role-play your...
- Ask volunteers to present their conversations in front of the class.
- Try to encourage less confident students to come up and perform.
