READING I

Read. What is the correct answer: A, B, C, or D?

When Graciela Chavez and her husband moved to Lincoln City, Graciela didn't speak English well. None of her neighbors spoke Spanish, so she didn't talk to people. She was very unhappy. One day Graciela saw a sign for an English class at the community center. Graciela began taking the class, and her English improved. She started to talk to her neighbors. It wasn't always easy, but Graciela got to know some of them. She learned that she and her neighbors were similar in a lot of ways. They had the same concerns about the run-down buildings in their community. One neighbor encouraged Graciela to join the community group. Graciela still doesn't speak English perfectly, but she's improving. Now she feels like she's part of her community. She's meeting people, and she's making a difference.

- 28. How does Graciela probably feel about her community now?
 - A. She probably feels the same about it as when she first arrived.
 - B. She probably feels more like an outsider than when she first arrived.
 - C. She probably likes it less than when she first arrived.
 - D. She probably likes it more than when she first arrived.
- 29. How are Graciela's neighbors similar to her?
 - A. They didn't speak English very well at first.
 - B. They are unhappy in Lincoln City.
 - C. They are worried about run-down buildings.
 - D. They are worried about the trash in the community.
