Welcome to Future 2 Multilevel Communicative Activities Book.

The Future 2 Multilevel Communicative Activities Book contains 60 communicative ready-to-use reproducible activities. Each activity corresponds to a lesson in the Student Book and recycles the vocabulary, language structures, and themes of that lesson. The activities are a valuable addition to the class, focusing on fun and communication while helping students internalize the new target language.

Each activity is accompanied by detailed teacher notes that guide the teacher and provide suggestions for adapting the activity to multilevel students in the same classroom. Very little teacher preparation time is needed, and the only additional materials needed are a photocopier and a pair of scissors.

What makes the activities in the book communicative?

All of the activities require students to communicate effectively to accomplish a task. The task may be to share information with a partner to complete a bus schedule or to circulate around the classroom to ask fellow classmates about their weekend plans. The activities are highly structured ensuring that students always know what they need to do and how close they are to accomplishing the task.

What makes the activities multilevel?

Adult Ed ESL classrooms are by nature multilevel. Many factors—including the students’ age, educational background, and literacy level—contribute to the student’s level. In fact, the same student may be at level in one skill, but pre-level or above-level in another. The greatest challenge for a teacher of a multilevel class is to keep all the students engaged all the time, drawing on their strengths and supporting them through their weak areas.

The teacher notes include Multilevel Options so teachers to adapt the activities for pre-level and above-level learners. They offer specific ways to provide the pre-level students with additional scaffolding for extra support, and to challenge the above-level learners to work more independently and to extend the activity.

How do the activities engage all of the students?

The activities in this book are designed to engage learners in a number of ways. First, nearly all the activities integrate all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Second, the activities involve different learning modalities. For example, many activities have students move as they learn and will appeal to kinesthetic learners. Many activities require students to interpret graphs, maps, game boards, and pictures and will appeal to visual learners. Third, the activities encourage students of all levels to contribute. The responsibilities for a task are distributed so that everyone must participate and everyone must give feedback. No students are left out. All learners contribute what they can based on their strengths and receive the multilayered scaffolding support to help them in their weaker areas. Because the activities are highly interactive and dynamic, they provide learners with many opportunities to negotiate meaning and check comprehension. This keeps the class humming with energy and purposeful communication.

Teacher Notes

Teacher Notes provide the teacher with all the instructions for the Activity Master on the facing page:

Unit 5 • Lesson 8

Question and Answer Game: Can you give me directions?

Grouping Pairs

Target Language Giving directions

Materials Activity Master 00

Class Time 20 minutes

---

Teacher Preparation

- Copy Activity Master 00, one for each pair.
- Cut each activity master into 13 parts—the map and 12 cards. Clip each set together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a map and a set of cards to each pair.
2. Explain that students are going to ask for and give directions. They will use the map to give each other directions to destinations written on the cards. They will have 15 minutes to do the activity.
3. Have students look at the map and identify the names of the businesses and the streets. Also have them locate the phrase “You are here” on the map.
4. Model the activity. Play the part of Student A.
   - Choose an above-level student to play the role of Student B. For example:
     A: [Picks a card that says Metro Bank.]
     Can you give me directions to Metro Bank?
     B: Sure. Go straight on Maple Avenue. Turn right on Main Street. Go straight. Go through the traffic light. At the stop sign, turn right. Metro Bank is on your right.
     A: [Follows the directions on the map with a finger.] Thanks.
5. Circulate during the activity to clarify directions and correct pronunciation.

---

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Instead of taking turns to ask for and give directions, have pre-level pairs work together to create directions to different places on the map.

Variation

Have students work in groups of 3. Have students select four destination cards and then write directions to those places on the map. In small groups, have students read their directions aloud without giving the name of the destination. The group members must listen to the directions and identify the destination.

Extension

Have pairs choose a different starting point and then continue the activity by asking for and giving directions from that point to other places on the map.
Unit 1 • Lesson 3

Picture Match: What do they look like?

Grouping: Whole-class mixer
Target Language: Describing physical characteristics, be and have in the simple present
Materials: Activity Master 1
Class Time: 20 minutes

Teacher Preparation

- Copy Activity Master 1. Make two copies of Activity Master 1 if you have up to ten students, or four copies if you have up to 20 students.
- Cut each copy into six cards.

Procedure

1. Give one card to each student at random. Have students look at the picture of the two people on the card.
2. Explain that students are going to walk around the classroom. They will describe the two people on their card in order to find a matching card. Tell students not to show their cards to anyone. They will have 15 minutes for the activity.
3. Write the following question on the board:
   - What does the woman look like?
   - What does the man look like?
4. Have students look at the pictures and describe how the two people look.
5. Play the part of Student A. Look at your card. Walk around the classroom. Ask an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Ask the questions on the board. Continue to call on above-level students until you get a match.
6. To give students more support, write the following model sentences on the board:
   - She's tall.
   - She has short curly brown hair.
   - He's bald.
   - He has a goatee.

Note: Remind students that they should continue to question students until they find a match.
7. Circulate during the activity to make sure students are not showing anyone their cards and are forming correct sentences.
8. When students find a match, give each student another card to continue the activity.

Multilevel Options

Pre-level: During the activity, allow pre-level students to refer to the model on the board.
Above-level: Tell above-level students to do the activity without looking at the model on the board.

Extension

After the class has finished the activity, have students sit with a partner who has a different card. Have pairs look at both pictures and talk about how the people in their pictures are different. For example:

A: In my picture the woman has short curly brown hair.
B: In my picture, the woman has short straight brown hair.
Unit 1 • Lesson 3

Activity Master 1

Picture Match: What do they look like?
Unit 1 • Lesson 6

Build a Sentence: Describing People

Grouping Pairs
Target Language Describing physical characteristics and personalities, compound sentences with and / but
Materials Activity Master 2
Class Time 20 minutes

Teacher Preparation

• Copy Activity Master 2, one for each pair of students.
• Cut each copy into 20 cards. The white cards are sentence beginnings and the gray cards are sentence endings.

Note: You may want to start with only the first five pairs.
• Clip each set of cards together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a set of cards to each pair.
2. Tell Student A to shuffle the white cards and Student B to shuffle the gray cards. Have students put their cards face up on their desks.
3. Explain that students are going to work together to make ten (or five) correct sentences with the cards using the connector and or but. Tell students that the white cards are sentence beginnings and the gray cards are sentence endings.
4. Model the activity. Assemble a white card and a gray card into a correct sentence and read it aloud: My brother is talkative but I am quiet.
5. Write the sentence on the board. Tell students to assemble the sentence with their cards.
6. Tell students to continue to assemble correct sentences. There are ten correct sentences.
7. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ matched sentences are correct.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Give pre-level students only the first five pairs of cards so that they have fewer choices to consider as they match the cards. When they finish the first half of the cards, give them the second half.

Extension

If some pairs complete the activity before the rest of the class, have partners take turns picking up a card and saying the sentence and continuing it with and or but and then adding their own ending. The other partner writes the sentence down and corrects it if necessary.

Variation

Mixer: Use one copy of Activity Master 2. Give each student a card at random. Have students walk around the classroom. They continually say their half of the sentence until they find the matching half. If there are more than 20 students, use two copies of Activity Master 2.

Teacher Preparation
Copy Activity Master 3, one for each student.

Procedure
1. Give a copy of Activity Master 3 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to write a story based on the pictures.
3. Put students in cross-ability pairs to discuss the questions on Activity Master 3.
4. Have students report their ideas to the class. Make sure students understand the scenes:
   (1) Marcos is studying at home. It isn’t a good place for him to study. There is too much noise.
   (2) Marcos is practicing English with some classmates. He’s learning better this way. He likes to talk and listen when he learns.
5. Ask the class: What’s the story? Have the class develop a story line orally.
6. Have students dictate the story line. Listen to students’ ideas, repeat the ideas while rephrasing them in correct English, and write them on the board.
7. Have students copy the story in their notebooks.

Multilevel Option

Above-level: After they copy the story, have above-level students write comprehension questions about the story to ask the class.

Extension

• After the class has finished the activity, erase words from the story and have students tell you the missing words.
• Dictate a sentence from the story and have students write it down. Then write the sentence on the board so students can check their work. Repeat with other sentences.
Unit 1 • Lesson 7

Activity Master 3

Picture-based Story: Learning Styles

1. PAIRS: Discuss the questions under each picture.
2. CLASS: Tell the story to the teacher.

- Where is Marcos studying?
  - Is this a good place for Marcos to study? Why or why not?

- What is Marcos doing?
  - Is this a good way for Marcos to learn English? Why or why not?
Unit 1 • Lesson 9

Tic-Tac-Toe: Questions with Be

Grouping Groups of 4
Target Language Be: Yes / No questions and short answers, personal questions
Materials Activity Master 4
Class Time 20 minutes

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 4, one for every four students.

Procedure

1. Make sure all students know each other’s names.
   You may want them to wear name tags during this activity.

2. Put students in like-ability pairs. Each pair is a team. Put two teams together to play the game.
   Give each group of 4 a copy of Activity Master 4.

3. Explain that students are going to play Tic-Tac-Toe with true questions and answers about their classmates. Students on each team will create a correct question that can be matched with a true answer in the grid. Here are the rules:
   - A student on Team 1 points to an answer in the grid (for example, Yes, he is.) and then asks a question (for example, Is Jacob tall?). Since the true answer is, Yes, he is, Team 1 marks an X over that answer in the grid.
   - Team 2 takes a turn by pointing to an answer and asking a question. If the question and answer are correct and true, Team 2 marks an O over the answer in the grid.
   - The first team to get three marks in a row—vertically, horizontally, or diagonally—wins.

4. Circulate during the activity to make sure that students’ questions are grammatically correct and that the answers are true.

5. Have teams play a second round.

Multilevel Option

Above-level: Have above-level students write the questions while they play the game.

Extension

If some groups finish before the rest of the class, have each pair write two questions for each answer.

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 5, one for every four students.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Each pair is a team. Put two teams together to play the game. Give each group of 4 a copy of Activity Master 5, a coin, and two markers.

2. Explain that students are going to play a board game. Here are the rules:
   - Pair 1 flips a coin to move. Heads means the team moves the marker ahead two squares and tails means the team moves their marker ahead one square.
   - Pair 1 moves the marker to a square. Student A forms the question. Student B answers with true information. Pair 2 listens to make sure Pair 1’s question and answer are correct.
   - If Pair 1’s question and answer are correct, Pair 2 takes a turn.
   - If Pair 1’s question and answer are incorrect, Pair 1 moves the marker back one square, and Pair 2 takes a turn.
   - If a pair lands on a square that already has a marker on it, the pair gets to move forward one square.
   - The first pair to reach FINISH wins.

3. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ answers are correct.

Extension

If some groups finish before the rest of the class, have each pair write three true sentences about their partner. For example:

- Louis is from Haiti.
- He’s shy and quiet.
- He’s a visual learner.

Answer Key

Unit 2 • Lesson 3

Interview: Tell me about your family.

Grouping Pairs
Target Language Family
Materials Activity Master 6
Class Time 25 minutes

Teacher Preparation
Copy Activity Master 6, one for each student.

Procedure

1. Give a copy of Activity Master 6 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to interview each other and draw a family tree based on the information they learn from their partner. Tell students they will each have 10 minutes to ask questions and draw their partner’s family tree.
3. Have students first write the names of ten close family members on Activity Master 6 and then give the activity master to their partner.
4. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Take Student B’s activity master. Look at it and model the activity. Draw a box on the board.
   A: [Looks at Student B’s activity master and writes Student B’s name, Sandra, at the center of the box on the board. Then points to the first name on Sandra’s list of family members and asks] Who’s Maria?
   B: She’s my sister.
   A: [Writes the name Maria on the board with a horizontal line to Sandra to indicate sisters.] Who’s Luis?
   B: He’s my father.
   A: [Writes the name Luis on the board with a vertical line to the other names to indicate father/child relationship.] For example:

      Luis
      Maria — Sandra

5. Continue to model the activity asking about and adding other names from Sandra’s list of family members to the family tree.
6. Have students tell their partners about their families. Each student will have a total of 10 minutes to explain his or her family relationships.
7. Circulate during the activity to help students ask clarifying questions when the family tree is unclear. For example: Who is Van? Is he Trang’s brother or cousin?
8. Call out time at 10 minutes and have the partners switch roles.

Multilevel Options

Pre-level: During the activity, allow pre-level students to look at the family tree while it's being drawn so they can clarify family relationships and correct misunderstandings immediately.

Above-level: Tell above-level students not to show the family tree until the interview is completed and then show it to their partner to check their information.

Extension
After the class has finished the activity, have students look at their partner’s family tree and write sentences about their partner’s family on the board. For example:

- Lucas has four brothers.
- He also has two sisters.

Teacher Preparation

• Copy Activity Master 7, one for every two students.
• Cut each copy into two parts. Clip together Card A and Card B.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a copy of Card A to Student A and a copy of Card B to Student B in each pair.
2. Hold up a copy of a card. Point to the Venn diagram. Explain that students are going to find out what Patty and Sam have and don’t have in common and write the information in the correct areas.
3. Draw a large Venn diagram on the board. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Then model the activity:
   A: Tell me about Sam.
   B: Sam speaks English.
   A: Oh, really? Patty does, too. [Writes English in the intersecting ovals.]
   B: Sam also speaks French.
   A: Oh, Patty doesn’t speak French but she speaks Chinese. [Writes Chinese in Patty’s oval and French in Sam’s oval.] For example:

   Instruct all students to write the above language information in the Venn diagram on their cards.

   4. To give students more support, write the model phrases on the board:
      He/she does, too.
      He/she doesn’t, either.

   5. Have pairs continue the activity. Tell students that they should take turns sharing information about the person on their cards.

   6. Tell students not to show each other their cards.

   7. Circulate during the activity to help students put the information in the correct part of the Venn diagram and to make sure they do not show their partners their cards until the end of the activity.

   8. When pairs have shared all their information, have partners compare Venn diagrams to check their information. The information should be the same in both Venn diagrams.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: During the activity, allow pre-level students to look at one another’s Venn diagram so they can see what Patty and Sam have in common and correct misunderstandings immediately.

Extension

If some pairs finish before the rest of the class, have them write sentences about Patty and Sam. For example:

Patty speaks Chinese but Sam speaks French.
Patty doesn’t have children and Sam doesn’t either.

Procedure

1. Give a copy of Activity Master 8 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to write a story based on the picture.
3. Put students in cross-ability pairs to discuss the questions on Activity Master 8.
4. Have students report their ideas to the class. Make sure students understand the scene: Eric lives in the United States. He's at the post office. He's sending gifts to his family and children back home.
5. Ask the class: What's the story? Have the class develop a story line orally.
6. Have students dictate the story line. Listen to students' ideas, repeat the ideas while rephrasing them in correct English, and write them on the board.
7. Have students copy the story into their notebooks.

Multilevel Option

Above-level: After they copy the story, have above-level students write comprehension questions about the story to ask the class.

Extension

• After the class has finished the activity, erase words from the story and have students tell you the missing words.
• Dictate a sentence from the story and have students write it down. Then write the sentence on the board so students can check their work. Repeat with other sentences.
Picture-based Story: Sending Packages Home

1. PAIRS: Discuss the questions under each picture.
2. CLASS: Tell the story to the teacher.

Unit 2 • Lesson 9

Find Someone Who: Do you have three sisters?

Teacher Preparation
Copy Activity Master 9, one for each student.

Procedure
1. Give a copy of Activity Master 9 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to walk around the classroom. They will ask and answer yes/no questions in order to complete as many sentences on Activity Master 9 as possible. Tell students they will have 15 minutes for the activity.
3. Write Do you ? on the board. Have students complete the question for the first item, Do you have three sisters? You may want to point out that the verb changes in the question form. Then model the activity. Walk around the classroom, asking students Do you have three sisters? until you get a yes answer. Write the student’s name to complete the first sentence on the board.
4. Circulate during the activity to help students formulate questions correctly.

Multilevel Option
Above-level: To increase the difficulty for above-level students, have them write three additional sentence prompts on the survey to extend the activity. For example:

___ works long hours.

Extension
After the class has finished the activity, have students read aloud their sentences so the class can learn about people they didn’t have a chance to talk to.

Variation
Have students do the activity in groups of 4. After 10 minutes, have students report to the class what they learned about their group members. The rest of the class listens and completes Activity Master 9.

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 11, one for each student.

Procedure

1. Give a copy of Activity Master 11 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to walk around the classroom to take a survey. Students will ask each other about store preferences and write the information in the chart on Activity Master 11. Tell students they will have 15 minutes for the activity.

Tell each student to choose a shopping category from the board and complete the question on Activity Master 11. Encourage students to choose different shopping categories to investigate.

4. Model the activity. For example:
   A: Where do you like to shop for shoes?
   B: I like to go to Lipton's for shoes.
   A: Why?
   B: Because it has good prices.

6. Continue to model the activity. Walk around the classroom. Stop at the desk of another above-level student. Ask him or her to play the part of Student B. Ask, Where do you like to shop for shoes? and Why? Write Student B's answers on your activity master.

7. Circulate during the activity to help students ask and answer the two questions. Students may need help explaining why they like the store.

8. At the end of the activity ask students to complete the sentence at the bottom of their activity master according to the information they learned in the survey. Have them report their findings to the class.

Multilevel Options

Pre-level: During the activity, have pre-level students refer to the explanations written on the board for more language support.

Above-level: Tell above-level students to do the activity without looking at the explanations written on the board.

- Copy Activity Master 12, one for every two students.
- Cut each copy into two parts. Clip together Schedule A and Schedule B.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a copy of Schedule A to Student A and a copy of Schedule B to Student B in each pair.
2. Hold up a copy Schedule A. Explain that students are going to fill in the missing information in their schedules by asking each other about Marta’s plans.
3. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Then model the activity:
   - A: What are Marta’s plans for Saturday? What is she going to do in the morning?
   - B: First she’s going to cash her check at the bank.
   - A: She’s going to cash her check at the bank? [Writes down information.]
   - Instruct all Student As to write cash check on the first line of their schedules.
4. Have pairs continue the activity.
5. Tell students not to show each other their schedules.
6. Circulate during the activity to help students with spelling and to make sure they do not show their partners their schedules until the end of the activity.
7. After pairs have filled in their schedules, have partners compare cards to check their information. The information on both cards should be the same.

Multilevel Options

Pre-level: Encourage pre-level students to refer to the question and response box on their schedule cards for guidance during the conversations.

Above-level: Have above-level students fold the question and response box under the schedule and form the questions and responses on their own.

Extension

13. What are your plans for tonight?

14. What do you need to buy soon? Why?
Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 16, one for each student.

Procedure

1. Give a copy of Activity Master 16 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to walk around the classroom to take a survey. Students will ask each other questions and record the responses in the chart on Activity Master 16. Tell students they will have 15 minutes for the activity.
3. Have students look through the list of activities and check five they want to ask about. Then have them write the five activities into the question column of their chart. Choose several activities for your own activity master, too. Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>How often do you . . .</th>
<th>Every day</th>
<th>2–3 times a week</th>
<th>Once a week</th>
<th>Once a month</th>
<th>Never</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>watch TV in English?</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Then model the activity:

A: How often do you study English?
B: Every day.

Record Student B’s response to your question by checking the appropriate column on your activity master. Show the class where you wrote the check on your activity master.

5. Continue to model the activity:

A: How often do you read the newspaper in English?
B: Never.

Record Student B’s response to your second question by checking the appropriate column on your activity master.

6. Continue to ask Student B the remaining questions on your activity master and record the answers in the chart.

7. Circulate during the activity to help students ask and answer their five questions.

Multilevel Option

Above-level: Tell above-level students to do the activity without looking at the word box.

Extension

After the class has finished the activity, have students tally their results and draw a bar graph for each question with the information they gathered from their classmates. Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Every day</th>
<th>2–3 times a week</th>
<th>Once a week</th>
<th>Once a month</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Study English</td>
<td></td>

Find Someone Who: Likes and Dislikes

Grouping  Whole-class mixer
Target Language  Free-time activities, expressing likes and dislikes, simple present yes/no questions
Materials  Activity Master 17
Class Time  20 minutes

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 17, one for each student.

Procedure

1. Give a copy of Activity Master 17 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to walk around the classroom. They will ask and answer Do you like to _____? in order to complete as many sentences on Activity Master 17 as possible. Tell students they will have 15 minutes for the activity.
3. Write the model responses to the yes/no question on the board:
   - Yes, I do. I love to _____.
   - Yes, I do. I like to _____.
   - No, I don’t. I don’t like to _____.
   - No, I don’t. I hate to _____.
4. Write Do you like to _______? on the board. Fill in the blank with the first item, go jogging. Then model the activity. Walk around the classroom, asking students Do you like to go jogging? until you get a Yes, I do answer. Write the student’s name to complete the first sentence on the activity master.
5. Circulate during the activity to help students respond to the questions correctly.

Multilevel Option

Above-level: To increase the difficulty for above-level students, have them write three additional sentence prompts on the survey to extend the activity. For example:

- _____ loves to go swimming.
- _____ hates to eat out.
- _____ likes to vacuum.

Extension

After the class has finished the activity, have students read their sentences aloud so the class can learn about people they didn’t have a chance to talk to.

Variation

Have students do the activity in groups of 4. After 5 minutes, have students report to the class what they learned about their group members. The rest of the class listens and completes Activity Master 17.

2. Explain that students are going to write a story based on the pictures.
3. Put students in cross-ability pairs to discuss the questions on Activity Master 18.
4. Have students report their ideas to the class. Make sure students understand the scenes:
   1. Anna and Yoshi are at a nice restaurant.
   2. Yoshi is slurping his soup. Anna is surprised. She thinks he is very rude.
   3. Yoshi is telling Anna that in his country everyone slurps their soup. It shows they like the food.
5. Ask the class: What's the story? Have the class develop a general story line orally. Write key vocabulary words on the board.
6. Have students return to working in pairs to write a draft of their story. Circulate around the classroom helping students with their writing.
7. As students finish their stories, put them together with another pair to share their stories and give one another feedback.
8. Have students write a final copy of their story to submit to you for your corrections and feedback.

Multilevel Option

Above-level: Have above-level students be the scribes in their pairs.

Extension

Mix and Match: Conversations

Grouping: Pairs
Target Language: Talk about weekend activities, likes and dislikes; invite someone to do something; accept an invitation
Materials: Activity Master 19
Class Time: 20 minutes

Teacher Preparation

- Copy Activity Master 19, one for each pair of students.
- Cut each copy into 13 cards. The white cards are Speaker A and the gray cards are Speaker B.
- Clip each set of cards together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a set of cards to each pair.
2. Tell Student A to shuffle the white cards and Student B to shuffle the gray cards. Have each student put their cards face up on their desks.
3. Explain that students are going to work together to make three different dialogues with the cards. Tell students that Speaker A always begins the conversation (white cards).
4. Model the activity. Pull out a Speaker A card with a question, for example: Do you want to go out for coffee? Ask the class to look for the response in the B cards (gray cards). When a student finds it, have the student call it out so everyone can find it. Sorry. I can’t. I have to study right now. How about a little later?
5. Tell students to continue in pairs to find the response to Speaker A’s response.
6. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ matched dialogues are correct.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Identify the first card in each of the three conversations to scaffold the activity for pre-level students.

Extension

If some pairs complete the activity before the rest of the class, have partners take turns picking up card with a question on it. The other partner responds in his or her own words.

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 20, one for every four students.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Each pair is a team. Put two teams together to play the game. Give each group of 4 a copy of Activity Master 20, a coin, and two markers.

2. Explain that students are going to play a board game. Here are the rules:
   - Pair 1 flips a coin to move. Heads means the team moves the marker ahead two squares and tails means the team moves their marker ahead one square.
   - Pair 1 moves the marker to a square. Student A forms the question. Student B answers with true information. Pair 2 listens to make sure Pair 1’s question and answer are correct.
   - If Pair 1’s question and answer are correct, Pair 2 takes a turn.
   - If Pair 1’s question and answer are incorrect, Pair 1 moves the marker back one square, and Pair 2 takes a turn.
   - If a pair lands on a square that already has a marker on it, the pair gets to move forward one square.
   - The first pair to reach FINISH wins.

3. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ answers are correct.

Extension

If some groups finish before the rest of the class, have each student write three true sentences about his or her partner. For example:

- Sonia is going to clean the house this Saturday.
- Sonia doesn’t like to go dancing.
- Sonia hates to go to loud parties.

Answer Key

1. How often do you go out to eat?
2. Do you like to go dancing?
3. What are you doing this Saturday?
4. How often do you exercise?
5. How often do you iron clothes?
6. What do you do in your free time?
7. Do you want to take a walk?
8. What are you doing this Sunday?
9. How often do you do your homework?
10. Do you like to go fishing?
11. What do you hate to do?
12. Do you want to go for a bike ride?

Teacher Preparation

- Copy Activity Master 21, one for every two students.
- Cut each copy into two parts. Clip together Card A and Card B.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability groups. Give a copy of Card A to Student A and a copy of Card B to Student B in each pair.
2. Explain that students are going to find out what is happening today at 101 Broadway.
3. Play the part of Student A. Call on above-level students to play the part of Student B. Then model the activity:

   A: What's the problem in Apartment 1C?
   B: The bedroom window is stuck.
   A: The bedroom window is stuck?
   B: Yes.

   Instruct all Student As to write is stuck after The bedroom window on the line in Apt 1C on their card. (The bedroom window is stuck.)
4. Have groups continue the activity. Tell students that they should not show each other their cards.
5. Circulate during the activity to help students clarify the information and to make sure they do not show their group members their cards until the end of the activity.
6. When the group members have shared all their information, have them compare their cards to check their information. All the information from Cards A and B should be the same.

Multilevel Option

Above-level: Make a copy of Activity Master 21 and block out more information from the cards so that the above-level students have to write complete sentences and not just phrases when they do the activity. For example:

Rental Apartment Match: How many bedrooms are there?

Grouping  Whole-class mixer
Target Language  Questions with , , apartment ads, asking about an apartment
Materials  Activity Master 22
Class Time  20 minutes

Teacher Preparation
- Copy Activity Master 22. Make two copies.
- Cut each copy into 12 cards (total of 24 cards).

Procedure
1. Give one card to each student at random. If there are fewer than 24 students, make sure to have duplicate cards of the same apartment. Have students read the ad for a rental apartment on the card silently.
2. Explain that students are going to walk around the classroom. They will ask and answer questions in order to find a matching card. Tell students not to show their cards to anyone. They will have 15 minutes for the activity.
3. Brainstorm with the class the kinds of questions they need to ask about the rental apartment on their card. Write the following questions on the board:
   - How many bedrooms are there? (bathrooms)
   - Is there a living room? (dining room / parking garage / washer and dryer)
   - Is there a bus stop nearby? (park / supermarket / school)
   - Are there a lot of closets? (windows)
   - Are pets allowed?
   - How much is the rent?
   - Are utilities included?
4. Play the part of Student A. Look at your card. Walk around the classroom. Ask an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Ask the questions on the board until you find your cards have a difference. For example:
   - A: How many bedrooms are there?
   - B: There are three.
   - A: OK. My apartment has three bedrooms, too. How many bathrooms are there?
   - B: There is one.
   - A: Oh, my apartment has two bathrooms.
 Continue to call on above-level students until you get a match.
Note: Remind students that they should continue to question students until they find a match.
5. Circulate during the activity to make sure students are not showing anyone their cards and are forming correct sentences.
6. When students find a match, give each another card to continue the activity.

Multilevel Options
Pre-level: During the activity, allow pre-level students to refer to the questions on the board.
Above-level: Tell above-level students to do the activity without looking at the questions on the board.

Extension
After students have found their match and you are running out of extra cards, have them sit down together and write their advertisement in complete sentences. For example:
There are three-bedrooms and two bathrooms. There is an eat-in-kitchen.

Picture-based Story: Moving On

Grouping: Pairs and then the whole class
Target Language: Present continuous, describing different communities
Materials: Activity Master 23
Class Time: 25 minutes

Teacher Preparation
Copy Activity Master 23, one for each student.

Procedure
1. Give a copy of Activity Master 23 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to write a story based on the pictures.
3. Put students in cross-ability pairs to discuss the questions about the pictures on Activity Master 23.
4. Have students report their ideas to the class. Make sure students understand the scenes:
   (1) Marta is talking to her sister. Her sister lives in a house. The weather is warm and sunny. Marta and her family are living in an apartment in a crowded, dirty, and polluted neighborhood. The weather is cold.
   (2) Marta and Tomas are moving from their apartment in the city. They are happy. They’re going to have a big house and a nice yard. It’s going to be warm and clean.
   (3) They are arriving to their new town. They’re not happy. It is crowded, dirty, and polluted—just like their old neighborhood a thousand miles away.
5. Ask the class: What’s the story? Have students describe each picture. Write key vocabulary words on the board.
6. Have students return to working in pairs to write a draft of their story. Circulate around the classroom, helping students with their writing.
7. As students finish their stories, put them together with another pair to share their stories and give one another feedback.
8. Have students write a final copy of their story to submit to you for your corrections and feedback.

Multilevel Option
Above-level: Have above-level students be the scribes in their pairs.

Extension
Have students cut out the pictures, making a three-page story with a picture and text on each page. Have them share their books with the class.

Teacher Preparation

- Copy Activity Master 24, one for each pair.
- Cut each activity master into 13 parts—the map and 12 cards. Clip each set together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a map and a set of cards to each pair.
2. Explain that students are going to ask for and give directions. They will use the map to give each other directions to destinations written on the cards. They will have 15 minutes to do the activity.

4. Model the activity. Play the part of Student A. Choose an above-level student to play the role of Student B. For example:
   - A: [Picks a card that says Metro Bank.] Can you give me directions to Metro Bank?
   - B: Sure. Go straight on Maple Avenue. Turn right on Main Street. Go straight. Go through the traffic light. At the stop sign, turn right. Metro Bank is on your right.
   - A: [Follows the directions on the map with a finger.] Thanks.
5. Circulate during the activity to clarify directions and correct pronunciation.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Instead of taking turns to ask for and give directions, have pre-level pairs work together to create directions to different places on the map.

Variation

Have students work in groups of 3. Have students select four destination cards and then write directions to those places on the map. In small groups, have students read their directions aloud without giving the name of the destination. The group members must listen to the directions and identify the destination.

Extension

Have pairs choose a different starting point and then continue the activity by asking for and giving directions from that point to other places on the map.

Unit 6 • Lesson 3

Build a Sentence: Last Weekend

Grouping
Pairs

Target Language
Regular verbs in the simple past, past activities

Materials
Activity Master 26

Class Time
20 minutes

---

Teacher Preparation

• Copy Activity Master 26, one for each pair of students.

• Cut each copy into 20 cards. The white cards are sentence beginnings and the gray cards are sentence endings.

  Note: You may only want to start with only the first five pairs.

• Clip each set of cards together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a set of cards to each pair.

2. Tell Student A to shuffle the white cards and Student B to shuffle the gray cards. Have students put their cards face up on their desks.

3. Explain that students are going to work together to make ten (or five) correct sentences with the cards. Tell students that the white cards are sentence beginnings and the gray cards are sentence endings.

4. Model the activity. Assemble a white card and a gray card into a correct sentence and read it aloud: Last weekend I invited some friends over for a barbecue.

5. Write the sentence on the board. Tell students to assemble the sentence with their cards.

6. Tell students to continue to assemble correct sentences.

7. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ matched sentences are correct.

---

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Give pre-level students only the first ten cards so that they have fewer choices to consider as they match the cards. When they finish the first half of the cards, give them the second half.

Extension

If some pairs complete the activity before the rest of the class, have them look at each sentence they wrote and say whether it is true for them. For example:

A: Last night I listened to music. Yes, that’s true for me. It is true for you?

B: Yes, it is. Last weekend I baked cookies. No, that’s not true for me. I didn’t bake cookies last weekend. Did you?

A: No, I didn’t.

Variation

Mixer: Use one copy of Activity Master 26. Give each student a card at random. Have students walk around the classroom. They continually say their half of the sentence until they find the matching half. If there are more than 20 students, use two copies of Activity Master 26.

Find Someone Who: Milestones

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 27, one for each student.

Procedure

1. Give a copy of Activity Master 27 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to walk around the classroom. They will ask and answer Did you ______? in order to complete as many sentences on Activity Master 00 as possible. Tell students they will have 15 minutes for the activity.
3. Write Did you ______? on the board. Have them complete the question for the first item, Did you grow up in a big city? You may want to point out that the verb changes in the question form. Walk around the classroom, asking students Did you grow up in a big city? until you get a yes answer. Write the student’s name to complete the first sentence on the board.
4. Circulate during the activity to help students formulate questions correctly.

Multilevel Options

Pre-level: Have all students compose the questions for the activity before they begin to circulate around the classroom. This will make it easier for the pre-level students to participate in the activity.

Above-level: To increase the difficulty for above-level students, have them write three additional sentence prompts to extend the activity. For example:

* _____ had a small store in Mexico.

Extension

After the class has finished the activity, have students read their sentences aloud so the class can learn about people they didn’t have a chance to talk to.

Variation

Have students do the activity in groups of 4. After 5 minutes, have students report to the class what they learned about their group members. The rest of the class listens and completes Activity Master 27.

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a copy of Card A to Student A and a copy of Card B to Student B in each pair.
2. Explain that students are going to ask and answer questions to complete the story.
3. Write When ? on the board. Have them complete the question for the first item, When did Bill move to Spain? You may want to point out that the verb changes in the question form. Then model the activity. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B:
   A: When did Bill move to Spain?

Grouping  Groups of four
Target Language  Talking about medical appointments, using prepositions of time: on / at / by / in / from . . . to
Materials  Activity Master 31
Class Time  20 minutes

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 31, one for every four students.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Each pair is a team. Put two teams together to play the game. Give each group of four a copy of Activity Master 31.

2. Explain that students are going to play Tic-Tac-Toe with correct sentences using the words in the Tic-Tac-Toe grids. Here are the rules:

Miming Game: What’s the matter?

Grouping
Groups of three students

Target Language
Identifying health problems, simple present tense, simple past

Materials
Activity Master 32

Class Time
15 minutes

Teacher Preparation

• Copy Activity Master 32, one for every three students.
• Cut each copy into 15 cards and clip each set together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability groups. Give a set of cards to each group.
2. Explain that students are going to take turns picking up a card and miming the health problem on the card. The team guesses the problem and writes it in a correct sentence on the board.
3. Model the activity. Invite two students to come to the board with you. You take the role of Student A. For example:
   A: [Picks up a card and begins to mime a headache.]
   B: You have a headache
   A: Yes. Write it down.
   C: [Writes You have a headache on the board.]
   A: [Compares the sentence on the board to the one on the card to make sure the sentence on the board is correct.]
5. Circulate during the activity to help teams identify errors in their sentences and to remind teams to erase their sentences after each turn.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Have pre-level students write only the health problem and not the complete sentence. For example:

- headache
- dizzy

Extension

If some teams finish before the rest of the class, have them work together to write a list of all the health problems they can remember without looking at the cards. Have them submit their lists to you for your spelling corrections.

Variation

Have students do the activity in groups of 4.
Miming Game: What’s the matter?

- You have a headache.
- Your arms are itchy.
- You have a sore throat.
- You’re dizzy.
- You have a cough.

1. Give a copy of Activity Master 34 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to walk around the classroom to take a survey. Students will ask each other about why they missed classes or were late for class. They will write the information in the chart on Activity Master 34. Tell students they will have 15 minutes for the activity.
3. Brainstorm with the class some possible reasons students miss class or are late for class and write them on the board. For example:
   - Because I had to work.
   - Because I had to take care of my daughter.
   - Because I was sick.
   - Because I had to take my sister to the clinic.
   - Because the weather was very bad.
   - Because I had car trouble.
   - Because I missed the bus.
4. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Then model the activity:
   - A: Toni, did you ever miss a class?
   - B: Yes.
   - A: Why did you miss the class?
   - B: Because I had to take my son to the clinic.
   - A: [Writes name and reason in chart.]
5. Continue to play the role of Student A. Walk around the classroom. Stop at the desk of another above-level student. Ask him or her to play the part of Student C. Ask Student C when and why he or she missed a class. Write Student C's answers on the board.
6. Circulate during the activity to help students with new vocabulary and spelling of words.

Multilevel Options

Pre-level: During the activity, have pre-level students refer to the vocabulary on the board as they write their classmates’ answers.
Above-level: Tell above-level students to do the activity without looking at the vocabulary on the board.

Extension

After the class has finished the activity, have students look at the information in their survey and discuss the following questions:

What are the most common reasons for missing class?
What are the most common reasons for being late to class?
What can students do to come to class more often?

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 35, one for every four students.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Each pair is a team. Put two teams together to play the game. Give each group of 4 a copy of Activity Master 10, a coin, and two markers.

2. Explain that students are going to play a board game. They have to form a conversation using the line in the box that they land in. Here are the rules:

   • Pair 1 flips a coin to move. Heads means the team moves the marker ahead two squares and tails means the team moves their marker ahead one square.

   • Pair 1 moves the marker to a square. They read the line and have to use that line in a correct conversation. For example:

     (Thanks for calling.)

     A: I can’t come in today because I have to go to the doctor. I don’t feel well.

     B: That’s too bad. Thanks for calling.

3. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ conversations are correct.

   Pair 2 listens to make sure Pair 1’s conversation is correct. If Pair 1’s conversation is correct, Pair 2 takes a turn.

   • If Pair 1’s conversation is incorrect, Pair 1 moves the marker back one square, and Pair 2 takes a turn.

   • If a pair lands on a square that already has a marker on it, the pair gets to move forward one square.

   • The first pair to reach FINISH wins.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Allow the pairs of students 10 minutes to read all the lines on the game board and look in the unit in the Student Book to take some notes to help them during the game. This will help the pre-level student prepare for the challenge of this game.

7. Thanks for calling.

8. I need to make an appointment please.
9. I had an accident.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs and give a copy of Activity Master 36 to each student.

2. Explain that students are going to complete the inventory about their own skills and then talk to their partners about their skills. Tell students they will have 5 minutes to complete their inventory and 10 minutes to talk with and listen to their partner.

3. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Then model the activity:

   A: Can you use a computer?

   B: Yes, I can. Can you?

   A: Yes, I can.

   A & B: [Mark a check in both columns for number 1.]

   B: Can you install computer software?

   A: No, I can’t.

4. Circulate during the activity to make sure students listen to one another and complete the information about their partner’s skills.

Multilevel Options

- Pre-level: Have the pairs work together to read each line and check the columns together.

- Above-level: To increase the difficulty for above-level pairs, have them ask the questions out of order so that they have to listen to one another carefully.

Extension

- If some students finish before others, have them look at the skills on Activity Master 36 and decide which ones a person uses in the following workplaces: an office, a store, a restaurant, and a warehouse.

- After the class has finished the activity, have students circle the skills they don’t have but want to learn. Ask students to tell the class three skills they want to learn.

Information Gap: Tom’s Work History

Grouping: Pairs
Target Language: Time expressions with in and later, simple past, asking and answering questions about work history
Materials: Activity Master 37
Class Time: 20 minutes

Teacher Preparation

• Copy Activity Master 37, one for every two students.
• Cut each copy into two parts. Clip together Time Line A and Time Line B.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a copy of Time Line A to Student A and a copy of Time Line B to Student B in each pair.
2. Hold up a copy of Time Line A. Explain that students are going to fill in the missing information in their time lines by asking each other about Tom’s work history.
3. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B. Then model the activity:
   A: What happened in June 1994?
   B: Tom graduated from high school.
   A: He graduated from high school?
      [Writes down information.]
   B: Yes.
   Instruct all Student As to write graduated from high school on the first line of their time lines.
4. Continue to model the activity:
   B: When did Tom come to the United States?
   A: He came in July 1996.
   B: He came to the United States two years later, in 1996.
   Instruct all Student Bs to write July 1996 on the second line of their time lines.
5. Have pairs continue the activity. Tell students not to show each other their time lines.
6. Circulate during the activity to help students with spelling and to make sure they do not show their partners their time lines until the end of the activity.
7. After pairs have filled in their time lines, have partners compare cards to check their information. The information on both cards should be the same.

Multilevel Options

Pre-level: Encourage pre-level students to refer to the question box on their time line cards for guidance during the activity.
Above-level: Have above-level students fold the question box under the time line and form the questions on their own.

Extension

If some pairs finish before the rest of the class, have them write sentences about Tom’s work history. For example:

In 1994 Tom graduated from high school.
He came to the United States two years later, in 1996.

Picture-based Story: The New Job Market

Grouping  Pairs and then whole class
Target Language  Simple past
Materials  Activity Master 38
Class Time  25 minutes

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 38, one for each student.

Procedure

1. Give a copy of Activity Master 38 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to write a story based on the pictures.
3. Put students in cross-ability pairs to discuss the questions on Activity Master 38.
4. Have students report their ideas to the class. Make sure students understand the scenes:
   (1) Lao got his first job in a factory. He started his job in 1982.
   (2) Lao became a supervisor in the factory. It was a good job.
   (3) Lao worked at the factory for 28 years. Then the factory closed, and Lao lost his job.
   (4) Lao is looking for a job. He doesn’t have the right job skills for a good job.
5. Ask the class: What’s the story? Have the class develop a general story line orally. Write key vocabulary words on the board.
6. Have students return to working in pairs to write a draft of their story. Circulate around the classroom, helping students with their writing.
7. As students finish their stories, put them together with another pair to share their stories and give one another feedback.
8. Have students write a final copy of their story to submit to you for your corrections and feedback.

Multilevel Option

Above-level: Have above-level students be the scribes in their pairs.

Extension

- Have students cut out the pictures, making a three-page story with a picture and text on each page. Have them share their books with the class.
- After they finish their story, have students write comprehension questions about their story. Then have students exchange their stories and questions. Have them read their classmates’ stories, answer the questions, and then check their answers with the student authors.

Put in Order: A Job Interview

Grouping  Pairs
Target Language  Identifying job duties, talking about job skills, answering questions about work history and job availability
Materials  Activity Master 39
Class Time  20 minutes

---

Teacher Preparation

- Copy Activity Master 39, one for each pair of students.
- Cut each copy into 14 cards. The white cards are Speaker A and the gray cards are Speaker B.
  Note: For pre-level students, cut only Speaker B’s lines into cards. Leave Speaker A’s card intact, so that pre-level students can focus on finding the appropriate responses.
- Clip each set of cards together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a set of cards to each pair.

2. Tell Student A to shuffle the white cards and Student B to shuffle the gray cards. Have students put their cards face up on their desks.

3. Explain that students are going to work together to put a job interview conversation in order. Tell students that Speaker A begins the conversation (white cards).

4. Model the activity. Pull out a Speaker A card with a question, for example: I have your application here. I see that you are working now. What are your job duties? Ask the class to look for the response in the B cards (gray cards). When a student finds it, have the student call it out so everyone can find it. I greet and assist customers. Also, I stock the shelves.

5. Tell students to continue in pairs to find Speaker A’s next prompt.

6. Circulate during the activity to make sure students are putting the job interview conversation in the correct order.

---

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Do not cut Speaker A’s lines into cards, but rather leave them as a block in their correct order. This way pre-level students can focus on finding Speak B’s responses and not worry about putting the conversation in order.

Extension

If some pairs complete the activity before the rest of the class, have partners take turns picking up a white card and asking their partner the question or prompt. The partner responds talking about his or her own work skills and experience.

5. Have pairs continue the activity.
6. Circulate during the activity to make sure students do not show their partners their schedules until the end of the activity.
7. When pairs have found a time they can meet, have partners compare schedules to make sure they're both free at the time they arranged.

2. Put students in like-ability pairs. Each pair is a team. Put two teams together to play the game. Give each group of four a copy of Activity Master 42.

3. Explain that students are going to play Tic-Tac-Toe with true sentences about their classmates using the adjectives and adverbs of manner in the Tic-Tac-Toe grids. Here are the rules:
   - A student on Team 1 points to an adjective or adverb of manner in the grid (for example, carefully) and then makes a true sentence about a classmate using that word (for example, Gladys does her homework carefully.) Team 2 decides if the sentence is both correct and true. If so, Team 1 marks an X over that word in the grid.
   - Team 2 takes a turn by pointing to an adjective or adverb and making a sentence about a classmate using that word. If the sentence is correct and true, Team 2 marks an O over the word in the grid.
   - The first team to get three marks in a row—vertically, horizontally, or diagonally—wins.

4. Circulate during the activity to make sure that students’ sentences about their classmates are grammatically correct and true.

5. Have teams play a second round.

Extension

If some groups finish before the rest of the class, have students write sentences about themselves using the words in the grids. The sentences may be negative or positive. For example:

- I don’t speak English clearly.
- I am quiet.

Build a Sentence: How is my child doing in school?

Grouping Pairs

Target Language Discussing a child’s behavior at school

Materials Activity Master 44

Class Time 20 minutes

---

Teacher Preparation

- Copy Activity Master 44, one for each pair of students.
- Cut each copy into 20 cards. The white cards are sentence beginnings and the gray cards are sentence endings.

  Note: You may want to start with only the first five pairs.

- Clip each set of cards together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a set of cards to each pair.
2. Tell Student A to shuffle the white cards and Student B to shuffle the gray cards. Have students put their cards face up on their desks.
3. Explain that students are going to work together to make ten (or five) correct sentences with the cards. Tell students that the white cards are sentence beginnings and the gray cards are sentence endings.
4. Model the activity. Assemble a white card and a gray card into a correct sentence and read it aloud: He gets along well with other children.
5. Write the sentence on the board. Tell students to assemble the sentence with their cards.
6. Tell students to continue to assemble correct sentences.
7. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ matched sentences are correct.

  Note: Refer to the activity master to see the correct sentence matches.

---

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Give pre-level students only the first five pairs so that they have fewer choices to consider as they match the cards. When they finish the first half of the cards, give them the second half.

Extension

If some pairs complete the activity before the rest of the class, have them sort the sentences into two categories: Good Behavior and Bad Behavior.

Variation

Play Concentration. Have pairs place all the cards face down. Have them take turns picking up a sentence beginning and a sentence ending. Do they match? If not, have one student replace the cards face down and let the other student take a turn. If the student finds a match, that student keeps the sentence.

  Note: Make sure students put the cards in the same place on the table since concentrating on their location is an important part of this game.

Board Game: Emergencies

Grouping Groups of 4
Target Language Identify medical emergencies, talk about fire safety procedures, respond to police officer’s instructions
Materials Activity Master 55, a coin, two markers for each group
Class Time 20 minutes

Teacher Preparation

Copy Activity Master 55, one for every four students.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Each pair is a team. Give each group of 4 a copy of Activity Master 55, a coin, and two markers.

2. Explain that students are going to play a board game. Here are the rules:
   • Pair 1 flips a coin to move. Heads means the team moves the marker ahead two squares and tails means the team moves their marker ahead one square.

   • If Pair 1’s answer is correct, Pair 2 takes a turn.
   • If Pair 1’s answer is incorrect, Pair 1 moves the marker back one square, and Pair 2 takes a turn.
   • If a pair lands on a square that already has a marker on it, the pair gets to move forward one square.
   • The first pair to reach FINISH wins.

3. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ answers are correct.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Allow the pairs of students 10 minutes to read all the lines on the game board and look in the unit of the Student Book to take some notes to help them during the game. This will help the pre-level student prepare for the challenge of this game.

Unit 12 • Lesson 3

Build a Sentence: Work Responsibilities

Grouping  Pairs
Target Language  Policies at work, work responsibilities, expressions of necessity and prohibition
Materials  Activity Master 56
Class Time  15 minutes

Teacher Preparation

• Copy Activity Master 56, one for each pair of students.
• Cut each copy into 20 cards. The white cards are sentence beginnings and the gray cards are sentence endings.

  Note: You may want to start with only the first five pairs.
• Clip each set of cards together.

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a set of cards to each pair.
2. Tell Student A to shuffle the white cards and Student B to shuffle the gray cards. Have students put their cards face up on their desks.
3. Explain that students are going to work together to make ten (or five) correct sentences with the cards. Tell students that the white cards are sentence beginnings and the gray cards are sentence endings.
4. Model the activity. Assemble a white card and a gray card into a correct sentence and read it aloud: All new employees have to go to the orientation meeting.
5. Write the sentence on the board. Tell students to assemble the sentence with their cards.
6. Tell students to continue to assemble correct sentences.
7. Circulate during the activity to make sure students’ matched sentences are correct.

   Note: Refer to the activity master to see the correct sentence matches.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Give pre-level students only the first five pairs of cards so that they have fewer choices to consider as they match the cards. When they finish the first half of the cards, give them the second half.

Variation

Mixer: Use one copy of Activity Master 56. Give each student a card at random. Have students walk around the classroom. They continually say their half of the sentence until they find the matching half. If there are more than 20 students, use two copies of Activity Master 56.

Grouping: Pairs and whole class
Target Language: Talking about a pay stub, simple past tense
Materials: Activity Master 57
Class Time: 25 minutes

Teacher Preparation
Copy Activity Master 57, one for each student.

Procedure
1. Give a copy of Activity Master 57 to each student.
2. Explain that students are going to write a story based on the pictures.
3. Put students in cross-ability pairs to discuss the questions about the pictures on Activity Master 57.
4. Have students report their ideas to the class. Make sure students understand the scenes:
   (1) It’s pay day. Max is picking up his paycheck at work.
   (2) Max is surprised. The check is not in the correct amount.
   (3) The pay stub says that Max worked 42 hours last week.
   (4) Max goes back to the office. He’s telling the person that he didn’t get paid for all the overtime hours he worked.
5. Ask the class: What’s the story? Have students describe each picture. Write key vocabulary words on the board.
6. Have students return to working in pairs to write a draft of their story. Circulate around the classroom, helping students with their writing.
7. As students finish their stories, put them together with another pair to share their stories and give one another feedback.
8. Have students write a final copy of their story to submit to you for your corrections and feedback.

Multilevel Option

Unit 12 • Lesson 6

Information Gap: Who takes care of the patients?

Grouping  Whole-class mixer

Target Language  Information questions with Who / Where / What

Materials  Activity Master 58

Class Time  20 minutes

---

Teacher Preparation

Cut each copy into two parts. Clip together Schedule A and Schedule B.

---

Procedure

1. Put students in like-ability pairs. Give a copy of Schedule A to Student A and a copy of Schedule B to Student B in each pair.

2. Explain that students are going to fill in the missing information in their schedules by asking each other questions with who, where, and what.

3. Write Who _________? on the board. Have Student As complete the question for their first item, Who does Wilma supervise? You may want to point out that the question is about the object of the sentence so it uses the auxiliary verb does. Play the part of Student A. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student B:

   A: Who does Wilma supervise?
   B: She supervises the aides.
   A: The aides?
   B: Yes.

   Instruct all Student As to write aides on the first line of their schedules.

4. Continue to model the activity. Write Who _________? on the board. Have Student Bs complete the question for their first item, Who takes care of patients on the first floor? You may want to point out that the question is about the subject of the sentence so it does not use the auxiliary verb. Play the part of Student B. Call on an above-level student to play the part of Student A:

   A: Who takes care of patients on the first floor?
   B: *Krista?
   A: Yes.

   Instruct all Student Bs to write Krista on the first line of their information cards.

5. Have pairs continue the activity. Tell students that they should take turns asking the names and occupations of the people on their cards.

6. Circulate during the activity to help students with their question formation and to make sure they do not show their partners their schedules until the end of the activity.

7. When pairs have filled in all the information, have partners compare schedules to check their information. The information on both cards should be the same.

Multilevel Option

Pre-level: Have all students meet with classmates who have the same card. (Card A students sit together. Card B students sit together.) Have students work together to write the questions for each blank on their card. Then have them meet with a person with a different card to ask and answer the questions. This helps pre-level students by focusing on one task at a time.
