

Affirmative of be with we, you, they, and it

We Luisa and I	are	in level 1. friendly.	It	is	interesting.
You			The book
They Sen and Ilya

Read the sentences. Circle We, They, or It. Draw an arrow from We, They, or It to the names of the people or things it refers to.

- Li and I are students. We are in level 1.
- Elsa and Oleg are in level 2. They are friendly.
- The class is good. It's interesting.

Negative of be with we, you, they, and it

We Luisa and I	are	not	in level 2. late.	It	is	not	easy.
You				The book
They Sen and Ilya

Read the sentences. Which sentences have the same meaning? Match.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. You aren't in level 2. | a. It's not hard. |
| 2. The book is not hard. | b. They're not here today. |
| 3. Tal and Adam aren't here today. | c. You're not in level 2. |