

Simple present: be + adjective
Affirmative			Negative
I	am		I	am
They	are	tall.	They	are not heavy.
He	is		He	is

Read the sentences. Underline the verb be. Circle the adjective. Match the sentences.

- |                                |                       |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Andres is tall.             | a. He is not heavy.   |
| 2. Hong is slim.               | b. They are not tall. |
| 3. Olga and Nikolai are short. | c. He is not short.   |

Simple present: have + object
Affirmative			Negative
I	have	black hair.	I	do
They	have	black hair.	They	do not have black hair.
He	has		He	does not

Read the sentences. Underline the verb have. Circle the object. Match the sentences. Then make contractions with do + not and does + not.

- |                            |                                       |
|----------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1. I have short hair.      | a. They do not have straight hair.    |
| 2. Mr. Nelson has a beard. | b. I do not have long hair.           |
| 3. They have curly hair.   | c. His brother does not have a beard. |