

Be: Compound sentences with and / but

He's outgoing	and	he has a lot of friends.
He's sweet		he's a little quiet.

Read the sentences. Circle and and but. Underline two complete sentences in each sentence.

1. Huang is funny and he tells great jokes.
2. My car is old but it is good.
3. Mia is shy but her brother is outgoing.

Be: Additions with and ... , too / and ...not, either

Affirmative statement		Addition
Eva is a student	and	I am, too.
		they are, too.
		he is, too.

Negative statement		Addition
Victor isn't a teacher	and	I 'm not, either.
		you aren't, either.
		she 're not, either.

Read the sentences. Circle the verb be in each sentence. Underline too and either. Then find the sentence that has the same meaning.

1. Olivia is friendly, and her friends are, too.
 - a. Olivia and her friends are friendly.
 - b. Olivia and her friends are not friendly.
2. My parents are quiet, and I am, too.
 - a. My parents and I are quiet.
 - b. My parents and I aren't quiet.
3. Ed isn't tall, and his brothers aren't, either.
 - a. Ed and his brothers are tall.
 - b. Ed and his brothers aren't tall.