

There is / There are

| Affirmative | | Negative | |
|------------------|----------------|--|----------------------------------|
| There is | a park nearby. | There isn't a There's no | bus stop near here. |
| There are | two bedrooms. | There aren't any There are no | restaurants in the neighborhood. |

| Questions | |
|-------------------|---|
| How many bedrooms | Is there Are there are there? a laundry room? a lot of windows? |

| Short answers | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| Yes, there is. there are. | No, there isn't. there aren't. |
| Two. (There are two.) | |

Read the conversations. Circle there in both sentences. Underline the verb be in the first sentence. Complete the second sentence with the correct form of be.

- A: Are there two bathrooms?
B: Yes, there _____.
- A: Is there an elevator?
B: No, there _____.
- A: How many windows are there?
B: There _____ four windows.