

Ways to express alternatives: or, and

He can work mornings	or	afternoons.
They can work Saturdays	and	Sundays.
I can't work Mondays	or	Tuesdays.

Read the sentences. Choose the sentence that means the same thing as the example.

1. Martha wants to work Saturday. She wants to work Sunday, too.
  - a. Martha wants to work Saturday and Sunday.
  - b. Martha wants to work Saturday or Sunday.
2. Nha can take one class. She wants to take an English class. She wants to take a computer class.
  - a. Nha can take an English class and a computer class.
  - b. Nha can take an English class or a computer class.
3. Ho-Jin can't use a cash register. He can't assist customers.
  - a. Ho-Jin can't use a cash register and assist customers.
  - b. Ho-Jin can't use a cash register or assist customers.